

Rosendo Caveiro has been very successful in the South Florida multi family real estate market during the past 20 years. Prior to moving to Cushman & Wakefield, Inc. in March of 2004, he was a Senior Vice President of the Multi Housing Investment Group at Grubb & Ellis. Prior to Grubb & Ellis, he was with CB Richard Ellis where he was recognized several times as one of the Top 5 producers during his 11-year tenure.

Rosendo is regarded as one of the top apartment advisors in South Florida having represented numerous institutional owners and private investors in the acquisition and disposition of apartment communities and vacant land throughout South Florida.

He also has a strong Management Consulting and Financial Accounting background having spent several years with KPMG Peat Marwick and Coopers & Lybrand.

Rosendo Caveiro's education includes a Masters of Business Administration from Houston Baptist University, a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from University of Florida. He also is a Licensed Real Estate Broker – Florida and a Licensed Mortgage Broker.

His professional achievements include the Daily Business Review Top Dealmaker (2008), the Cushman & Wakefield Top Producer Award (2005), the Daily Business Review Top Dealmakers (2003), the Florida International University Certificate of Appreciation (2002), and the Archon Achievement Award for Exceptional Performance in Brokerage (1997).

Rosendo Caveiro's professional affiliations include, Certified Public Accountant – Florida, National Multi Housing Council – Advisory Member, Terrabank, NV – Director and Pinecrest Premier Soccer Club – Director.